

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost, I would like to express my deep gratitude to my supervisor Prof. N.M.P. Verma. I have learned many things since I enrolled as scholar. Without his help I could not have finished my thesis successfully. He spent more time than I required and time to time he used to instruct me how to write a paper, how to search a literature and how to collect data. Along with this, his encouragement helped me to feel confident to fulfil my aim and desire as well as to overcome every difficulty I encountered. He also helped me at every stage of my research work and suggested possible improvements. His continuous support & direction always motivated for me.

I am also grateful to DRC members and faculties of Department of Economics namely Prof. Sanatan Nayak, Dr. L.C. Malliah (Associate Prof.), Dr. Surendra Mehar, Dr. Devendra Kumar Yadav and Dr. Pranav Aanand (Assistant Prof.) for their encouragement. I also sincerely extend my heartfelt thanks to Prof. Sudhir Sharma, (Department of Economics, C.C.S. University, Meerut U.P.), Prof. K.L. Mahawar (Department of Librarian and Information Science) Dr. Sunil Gorla (Librarian), Mr. O.P. Saini (Assistant Librarian) Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar University, and other library staff for providing me possible assistance as & when required by me.

I am also thankful to my seniors, juniors and classmates along with all research fellows, friends and colleagues of Department of Economics for their assistance in many aspects during the preparation of this thesis.

I would also like to acknowledge my indebtedness to those workers who volunteered and spent their time in responding the survey. I also wish to submit my appreciation for cooperative response by contractors to whom I visited in NOIDA.

Last but not least, I owe more thanks to my family members, particularly to my younger sister namely Sanyogtia for her emotional support. At each step of my research, she has been a live source of my inspiration. It's not enough to only submit my appreciation to lovely sister because she always encouraged me and hope the same throughout my life. Without the family support it was impossible for me to complete Doctor of Philosophy.
