NOTICE

Clearance Certificates in the Central Library

As per the resolution of the 43rd meeting of the Library Advisory Committee (LAC) and its subsequent approval by the competent authority, it is informed to all the Heads of the department/ Coordinators of courses running in the University that in view of the requirement of books for the students during exam period, the LAC has recommended to revised the practice of collecting the library books and issuing the Clearance Certificates to the students before the annual examinations every year. Now, the rules will be continued only for the students appearing in the last semester of final year examinations. Therefore, it is requested to all the departments that they may issue the admit cards to the students for their annual examinations except for the last semester of final year students.
